

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

United States of America,
Plaintiff,
v.
Richard Patterson,
Defendant.

Case No.: 3:24-mj-04203-BJC

ORDER

Under federal law, including Rule 5(f) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), and all applicable decisions from the Supreme Court and the Ninth Circuit interpreting Brady, the government has a continuing obligation to produce all information or evidence known to the government relating to guilt or punishment that might reasonably be considered favorable to the defendant's case, even if the evidence is not admissible so long as it is reasonably likely to lead to admissible evidence. See United States v. Price, 566 F.3d 900,913 n.14 (9th Cir. 2009). Accordingly, the court orders the government to produce to the defendant in a timely manner all such information or evidence.

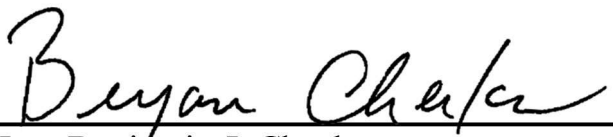

Information or evidence may be favorable to a defendant's case if it either may help bolster the defendant's case or impeach a prosecutor's witness or other government evidence. If doubt exists, it should be resolved in favor of the defendant with full

1 disclosure being made.

2 If the government believes that a required disclosure would compromise witness
3 safety, victim rights, national security, a sensitive law-enforcement technique, or any other
4 substantial government interest, the government may apply to the Court for a modification
5 of the requirements of this Disclosure Order, which may include in camera review and/or 6 withholding or subjecting to a protective order all or part of the information.

7 This Disclosure Order is entered under Rule 5(f) and does not relieve any party in 8 this matter of any other discovery obligation. The consequences for violating either this
9 Disclosure Order or the government's obligations under Brady include, but are not limited
10 to, the following: contempt, sanction, referral to a disciplinary authority, adverse jury
11 instruction, exclusion of evidence, and dismissal of charges. Nothing in this Disclosure
12 Order enlarges or diminishes the government's obligation to disclose information and 13 evidence to a defendant under Brady, as interpreted and applied under Supreme Court and 14 Ninth Circuit precedent. As the Supreme Court noted, "the government violates the 15 Constitution's Due Process Clause 'if it withholds evidence that is favorable to the defense
16 and material to the defendant's guilt or punishment.'" Turner v. United States, 137 S. Ct.
17 1885, 1888 (2017), quoting Smith v. Cain, 565 U.S. 73, 75 (2012).
